John C. Strickroot, Jr. is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of Real Estate Practice Group.

A Martindale-Hubbell AV® rated attorney, John has over 25 years of legal experience representing clients in the acquisition and disposition of real estate, business and personal property interests, real estate development, general corporate matters, loan transactions of all types, and workouts and collection matters.

A former commercial banker and General Counsel to a large real estate developer, John represents lenders, borrowers, buyers, sellers and developers in connection with their complex commercial transactions, financing, including sophisticated mezzanine/equity financing, restructured loan transactions, loan workouts, foreclosure, and collection litigation matters. His experience includes documenting and closing on large and small real estate and corporate transactions, loan transactions for lenders and borrowers, and handling over 100 foreclosure and collection related litigation matters.

Prior to joining Shutts, John was the president and General Counsel to a large Sarasota real estate development company and an internal auditor for a large Florida utility company. He also was a commercial loan officer and manager for a large regional commercial bank.
