300 South Orange Avenue, Suite 1600, Orlando, FL 32801

Mary Ruth Houston is Of Counsel in the the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Labor & Employment Law Practice Group. She is certified as a mediator in Florida courts and the Middle District of Florida. She was selected as Orlando's 2025 "Lawyer of the Year" in Litigation - Labor and Employment, by Best Lawyers in America®, and received the same honor in 2020. She was also included by Florida Trend in its 2024 Legal Elite NOTABLE Labor & Employment Lawyers list.

Mary Ruth focuses on business and employment-related issues using a problem-solving approach that helps clients concentrate on their core business. With over 30 years of experience handling complex disputes, her understanding of business issues outside the courtroom enables her to advise companies how to avoid litigation, or, if required, handle it effectively. Mary Ruth assists companies throughout Florida and beyond with legal challenges that may permanently affect their businesses. Corporations of all sizes turn to Mary Ruth for her experience in pretrial, trial (including trying multiple cases to verdict), and appellate work.

Mary Ruth's practice encompasses a broad range of labor and employment issues. These involve employee discharge and discrimination cases, including age, sex, race, national origin, religion and disability claims, as well as cases involving restrictive covenants and wage-hour matters (individual and collective). She also has extensive experience in negotiating and drafting complex employment and severance agreements. Mary Ruth teaches labor and employment law in the Master of Human Resources Program at Rollins College and speaks frequently at seminars on employment related matters and conducts training on employment issues for businesses.

Her litigation practice also encompasses a wide variety of commercial, contract, intellectual property, and business tort disputes.

Mary Ruth is an avid mountain climber and hiker, and has summited two of the Seven Summits, as well as Cotopaxi, Ecuador, the highest active volcano in the world, and Stok Kangri, a 6,194 m (over 20,000 feet) mountain in Ladakh, India.
