Stefan Rubin is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Corporate Practice Group. He is also a Florida Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Stefan concentrates his practice in general corporate representation, mergers and acquisitions, securities, and debt and equity financing. Stefan assists clients in structuring, negotiating and documenting their most important business transactions. He regularly helps clients negotiate shareholders agreements, LLC operating agreements, partnership agreements and joint venture agreements. He also assists clients with complex business issues, from strategic business relationships and distribution arrangements to employment, confidentiality, noncompetition and intellectual property licensing. He also assists buyers and sellers in the disposition of businesses, and facilitates small and mid-cap companies with obtaining debt and private placements of equity in the U.S. and internationally.

Professional and Community Involvement

Stefan has been an active member of The Florida Bar's Business Law Section (BLS), where he serves on the Section's Executive Council. Within the BLS, he is most involved in the Corporations, Securities & Financial Services (CSFS) Committee, which has been involved in every major change to Florida's business entity statutes for over 20 years. He served as Chair of the CSFS Committee four times in his career. His projects have included numerous revisions to Florida's corporate, LLC, partnership and not-for-profit corporation statutes. Stefan has testified before committees of the Florida House and Senate on BLS legislative revisions. He is currently also Co-Chair of the BLS' committee on Third Party Legal Opinions, and helped author the BLS' Report on Third-Party Legal Opinion Customary Practice in Florida. His past BLS service includes serving as Chair of the Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Committee, Chair of the Sponsorship Committee and Vice-Chair of the FICPA Liaison Committee.

He is also an active member of the American Bar Association's Business Law Section, where he focuses his time on M&A Committee and the Middle Market and Small Business Committees, and their projects and subcommittees.

Stefan A. Rubin

Stefan is also an active member and Past President of ACG Orlando, the premier global association for professionals involved in corporate growth, mergers and acquisitions. Stefan has been an actively involved as an executive officer of ACG Orlando for almost 20 years, and has served as Co-Chair of the statewide ACG Florida Capital Connection conference.

He also volunteers with the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) offices in Central Florida, where he regularly serves as an advisory board member for emerging local companies, providing strategic advice on their growth.
