Tucker J. Pryor is an Associate in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group.

Tucker focuses his practice on complex matters related to business and commercial litigation, representing clients across a broad range of industries to offer effective and expeditious dispute resolution strategies.

A veteran of the U.S. Air Force, Tucker served as an Assistant Staff Judge Advocate for the United States Air Force/Space Force, prior to joining Shutts. While in law school, Tucker served as a clerk for Chief Judge Erdman of the Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces.

In addition to his legal training, Tucker earned a Master's degree in Sports Management from Columbia University, where he focused on the legal, business, and operational structures of professional sports organizations, as well as Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) developments, and the development and operations of sports facilities and stadiums.
