Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to share that Florida Attorney General James Uthmeier recently announced the appointment of Tallahassee Managing Partner Benjamin Gibson to a transition team composed of nationally-respected conservative attorneys. The team will play a pivotal role in assisting with transition activities and advancing the America First agenda.

Attorney General Uthmeier expressed his gratitude for the involvement of these distinguished attorneys, stating, "It's a tremendous honor to serve the citizens of the Free State of Florida as our state's 39th Attorney General. I'm grateful that these powerhouse attorneys are willing to offer their time and considerable experience as we implement the America First agenda and keep Florida safe, strong, and free."

Ben recently stated in an interview with Law360 Pulse, "The attorney general and his team are hitting the ground running, and it's an honor to assist with the transition along with many talented and accomplished lawyers who care deeply about the future of Florida."
