

Benjamin Elliott Named Officer of Orlando Chapter of the Federal Bar Association

Orlando

9.29.21

Benjamin Elliott, an attorney in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office was recently named as an officer of the Federal Bar Association's Orlando Chapter, serving the organization as Young Lawyer Chair.

In his leadership role, Benjamin will assist his fellow officers in the advancement of the science of jurisprudence and in promoting the welfare, interests, education and professional development of local attorneys involved in federal law. In his role as Young Lawyer Chair, he will promote legal education opportunities and experiences to enhance the careers of the chapter's young lawyers.

Founded in 1971, the Orlando Chapter of the Federal Bar Association is a voluntary bar association serving federal practitioners and the federal judiciary. The mission of the FBA is to strengthen the federal legal system and administration of justice by serving the interests and needs of the federal practitioner, both public and private, the federal judiciary and the public they serve.

About Benjamin F. Elliott

Benjamin Elliott is a senior associate in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group. Benjamin's practice includes the representation of public and private clients in large multi-party litigation. Benjamin joined Shutts from a large Northeast law firm and previously served as a Special Assistant to the General Counsel to the Governor of Connecticut as well as an intern in the United State Attorney's Office for the District of Connecticut. Prior to his career in law, he served as the Executive Director of the Macchi School, an independent middle and high school of gifted, indigent students in rural Tobati, Paraguay.

Professionals

Benjamin F. Elliott

Practice Areas

Litigation

Benjamin Elliott Named Officer of Orlando Chapter of the Federal Bar Association

Offices

Orlando