Benjamin Gibson, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tallahassee office, has been reappointed to the First District Court of Appeal Judicial Nomination Commission, a nine-member commission of lawyers who evaluate and nominate individuals to the Governor for appointment to the First District Court of Appeal.

His reappointment was announced by Governor DeSantis on September 2, 2022. Ben, who has served on the JNC since 2018 and is a past Chairman of the Commission was reappointed for a term ending July 1, 2026.

"I am grateful to Governor DeSantis for this appointment. I will continue to make sure we send names of individuals to the Governor who will faithfully uphold our constitutions and apply the law as written," said Ben.

Ben previously served as General Counsel to Governor Ron DeSantis' Transition Team advising the Governor on his appointment of three Florida Supreme Court Justices. Prior to joining the firm, he served as the Deputy General Counsel and an Assistant General Counsel to Florida Governor Rick Scott for nearly five years. In that role, he personally advised the Governor on more than 120 judicial appointments to Florida's trial courts, District Courts of Appeal, and the Supreme Court.
