Miami
6.1.26

Bernie Pastor, a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, was selected to deliver the closing argument faculty demonstration at The Florida Bar Trial Lawyers Section's Advanced Trial Advocacy Course, held May 26–30, at St. Thomas University College of Law. Bernie has served on the faculty for the seminar for several years, helping train trial lawyers participating in the program.

The Advanced Trial Advocacy Course is an intensive four-day interactive trial training seminar designed to enhance courtroom advocacy skills through hands-on instruction and practical exercises. Sponsored by The Florida Bar's Trial Lawyers Section, the program brings together experienced judges and trial attorneys from across the state to provide advanced advocacy training to over 50 attorney participants.
