Bowman Brown, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Miami office, was recently mentioned in the annual Best of Miami edition of Miami Today in connection with the selection of client Grove Bank and Trust as a Best of Miami financial institution.

The May 29, 2025 article, titled "People, Integrity, Technical Skills Sparkle in Financial World," highlights influential figures and institutions in the financial sector, with a focus on Grove Bank and Trust and its leadership. It underscores the significance of strong, people-centered leadership in banking and celebrates professionals making a meaningful impact in the South Florida financial community.

Bowman spoke to Miami Today about Grove Bank and Trust and commended its legacy, its strong wealth management and trust business, as well as its local lending success. He emphasized that "it's well-managed. It's conservative, and it has a number of very good experienced local people involved!"

Last, Bowman praised the bank's leadership, particularly Chairman Sheldon Anderson, and named several local directors— Michael Weintraub, Charles Stunts, and Jose Cueto — as part of the bank's "all-star management team."
