

Brendan Barry Marks Cruise Ship's Maiden Call to Port Everglades

8.2.21

Brendan Aloysius Barry, a Florida Bar Board Certified Real Estate attorney in Shutts & Bowen's Fort Lauderdale office, welcomed the "Odyssey of the Seas" to Port Everglades on Saturday, July 31, on behalf of the 130 corporate members of the Port Everglades Association.

At 1,138 feet long, 135 feet wide, 169,000 gross tonnage, a cruising capacity of 5,498 passengers, and 1,550 full time professional crew, Captain Per Kristofferson confirmed this is the first time a Quantum-Class cruise liner has ever berthed in the United States.

Port Everglades Association represents all of the major users of Port Everglades, and Shutts has been an active member of the Board of Directors for decades. Brendan and other Shutts partners regularly counsel clients in port-related matters.
