

Brendan Barry Serves as a Judge for Ocean Exchange's Entrepreneurship Program

Fort Lauderdale
11.13.24

Brendan Aloysius Barry, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Fort Lauderdale office, recently served as a judge during "Ocean Exchange 2024," the non-profit's entrepreneurship program and awards program for developed and commercialized solutions for the Blue Economy.

According to the organization, the event is hosted each year to recognize and help advance innovation in technologies aimed at the health of our oceans and the Blue Economy, with solutions ranging in categories from alternative materials to CO2 reduction. The Ocean Exchange awards three $100,000 non-dilutive grants and two $10,000 collegiate grants. The program "supports the acceleration of innovative solutions for healthy oceans, coastlines, and the sustainable blue economy" and competitors from around the world present "innovative, proactive and globally scalable solutions with working prototypes that can leap across industries, economies, and cultures." As a voting delegate, Brendan attended all presentations and breakout sessions to select the winners of the Wallenius Wilhelmsen Orcelle® Award and the 2x Neptune Awards.
