

Brian Paul and Camila Chediak Appointed Vice-Chairs of the Business Law Section's Computer Law & Technology Committee

7.11.24

Shutts & Bowen attorneys Brian J. Paul and Camila Chediak were recently appointed Vice Chairs of the Computer Law & Technology Committee for the Business Law Section of The Florida Bar. Brian is serving as First Vice Chair and Camila is serving as Second Vice Chair of the Committee.

The Committee serves to educate the Business Law Section and The Florida Bar membership about substantive computer and technology law issues, cases and statutes. The committee also offers periodic CLEs and practice guides on a variety of new topics and matters that are pertinent to the practice areas represented by the Committee.

For more information, please click here.

About Brian J. Paul

Brian J. Paul is an Associate in the Tampa office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Intellectual Property practice group. Brian is also a registered patent attorney and is admitted to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"). His practice focuses primarily on matters related to technology, patent and trademark prosecution, as well as intellectual property transactions and litigation. He also advises clients on matters related to due diligence, investigations, licensing, and unfair competition.

About Camila Chediak

Camila Chediak is an Associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Intellectual Property Practice Group. Camila advises emerging and industry-leading companies on a broad range of trademark and copyright matters, including the clearance, prosecution and enforcement of intellectual property assets, as well as licensing and other transactional work.

Professionals

Camila Chediak

Brian J. Paul

Brian Paul and Camila Chediak Appointed Vice-Chairs of the Business Law Section's Computer Law & Technology Committee

Practice Areas

Intellectual Property

Offices

Miami

Tampa