

Bridget Dennis Authors Cramdown Article for Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association

Cramdown

Tampa

8.24.21

Bridget M. Dennis, an attorney in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office, recently authored an article in the Summer 2021 edition of the Cramdown, a quarterly publication for the Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association's membership.

In the article, titled "Displacement: Consideration of Removal and Reinstatement of a Debtor in Possession Under Section 1104 and Section 1185," Bridget discusses case law involving Section 1104 and Section 1185, as they would apply to certain facts involving a Subchapter V debtor. She goes on to explain temporal requirements, court discretion to reinstate a debtor in possession, as well as contrasts among how courts handle the removal of a debtor based on whether or not the business is still in operation.

To view the Summer 2021 issue of the Cramdown, click here.

The Cramdown is a quarterly publication of scholarly articles, facts, pictures and announcements, designed for the more than 300 members of the Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association. Cramdown articles provide its members with information necessary to the bankruptcy practice in the Tampa Division, and are solicited from volunteers - including Judges and Lawyers and the Clerk's Office and United States Trustee's Office.

About Bridget M. Dennis

Bridget M. Dennis is an attorney in the Tampa office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Creditors' Rights/Bankruptcy practice group. Bridget's practice focuses on the areas of debtor-creditor matters and bankruptcy litigation. Prior to joining Shutts, Bridget was a law extern for the Honorable Judge Caryl E. Delano of the United States Bankruptcy Court, Middle District Court of Florida. She also served as a law intern with the United States Attorney's Office for the Middle District of Florida, Appellate Division.

Professionals

Bridget M. Dennis

Bridget Dennis Authors Cramdown Article for Tampa Bay Bankruptcy Bar Association

Practice Areas

Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy

Industries

Financial Services

Offices

Tampa