5.20.21

West Palm Beach real estate partner Harvey E. Oyer III was the subject of the Business Development Board of Palm Beach County's latest member spotlight.

In "A Cup of Coffee with Harvey Oyer III," Harvey shares more about his career as a land-use attorney, his community involvement, his family and his biggest fears. Harvey is currently Chair of the Forum Club of the Palm Beaches and incoming Chair of the Business Development Board. As a fifth-generation Floridian, he is often viewed as Palm Beach County's de facto historian.

"In my view, Palm Beach County is now a far better place than it was when I was growing up," said Harvey. "The amenities, people, diversity, inclusion, cultural experiences, restaurants, number of flights, and unprecedented influx of intellectual capital have created the kind of energy that propels communities forward and allows them to thrive."
