

Daniel E. Nordby Appointed Chair of Appellate Practice Group at Shutts & Bowen

1.30.23

Shutts & Bowen is pleased to announce that Tallahassee Partner Daniel E. Nordby has been named Practice Group Leader of the firm's Appellate Practice Group.

A leader in appellate advocacy, Nordby has experience with all types of civil appellate and original writ proceedings before Florida's appellate courts and often handles cases of first impression in the areas of constitutional law, administrative law, election law, and insurance law. He has presented oral argument on multiple occasions before the Florida Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, and Florida's district courts of appeal.

Nordby is Florida Bar Board Certified as a specialist in the area of Appellate Practice, a credential recognizing professional expertise that is held by less than one-half of one percent of The Florida Bar's 100,000+ members.

"I am so pleased Dan has been named Practice Group Leader of the Appellate Practice Group," said Tallahassee Office Managing Partner Ben Gibson. "He is an experienced and skilled appellate practitioner who has garnered the trust and respect of his clients, colleagues, and the courts in Florida and at the federal level. Dan is perfectly situated to lead one of Shutts' most distinguished practice groups as we continue to help our clients with their most consequential legal issues at the appellate level."

Nordby credits Shutts and his appellate colleagues for his success: "It's an honor to be selected to lead the Appellate team," he said. "I'm thankful for the opportunity to work with some of the best appellate attorneys in Florida to further the mission of the Appellate Practice Group."
