

Daniel Nordby Appointed Trustee of Florida Supreme Court Historical Society

7.2.24

Daniel Nordby, a partner in Shutts & Bowen's Tallahassee office and Chair of the firm's Appellate Practice Group, was recently appointed by The Florida Supreme Court Historical Society's Board of Trustees to serve a three-year term.

Dan will begin to serve his term as an elected Trustee on July 1, 2024. He will join his fellow trustees in representing the non-profit organization's more than 800 members.

Incorporated in 1977, the Florida Supreme Court Historical Society is dedicated to maintaining records of people and events shaping the evolution of Florida's court system and to educating Floridians about the vital role of the Judicial Branch in our system of government. To learn more, click here.

About Daniel Nordby

Daniel Nordby is a partner in the Tallahassee office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is Chair of the firm's Appellate Practice Group. His practice focuses on high-profile, high stakes matters of law and public policy, particularly in the areas of constitutional, appellate and administrative law. Daniel maintains an active appellate practice before Florida's state and federal courts and often handles cases of first impression in the areas of constitutional law, administrative law, election law, and insurance law. Daniel has presented oral argument on multiple occasions before the Florida Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, and Florida's district courts of appeal.

Professionals

Daniel E. Nordby

Practice Areas

Appellate

Offices

Tallahassee