Daniel Nordby, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tallahassee office, participated as a panelist during a 1-hour CLE presentation for the Florida Defense Lawyers Association on January 11, 2022.

The "Judicial Pathways" panel discussed Florida's judicial nominations and the appointment process. The panel featured three experts, including Daniel, who is a former General Counsel to the Governor and Chair of the Florida Supreme Court JNC, as well as a former Chair and current member of the 4th Circuit JNC, and a third panelist who is a member of the 18th Circuit JNC.

The Florida Defense Lawyers Association is a voluntary bar association that was formed in April 1967 to represent the interests of Florida lawyers whose primary focus was the defense of civil matters. FDLA's nearly 1000 members include attorneys from private law firms, public agencies, and in-house corporate counsel.
