

Daniel Nordby Presents Three CLE Lectures to Florida Attorneys in Spring 2021

Tallahassee
5.21.21

Daniel Nordby, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tallahassee office, presented three separate CLE courses this spring for two organizations, the Appellate Practice Section of The Florida Bar and the Florida Government Bar Association.

As a part of the Florida Government Bar Association's State and Federal Government Administrative Practice (SFGAP) certification lecture series, Daniel presented one-hour CLE lectures to help candidates prepare for their upcoming certification examinations. His presentations included "Florida Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies and Primary Jurisdiction & Florida Exceptions to and Exemptions from Applicability of APA" on April 12, 2021, and "Florida Constitutional Law" on April 26, 2021. Daniel is one among fewer than 100 attorneys who is Florida Bar Board Certified in State and Federal Government and Administrative Practice.

Daniel also presented a one-hour CLE lecture on May 7, 2021 for the Appellate Practice Section of The Florida Bar, discussing the tools available to practitioners for the evaluation of statutory and constitutional construction, in "Statutory Construction: The Tools of the Trade."
