Fort Lauderdale attorney Deedee Bitran, a member of the firm's Business Litigation practice group, has authored an article titled "Me Too, Unless You're a Jew," published in The Floridian.

In the article, Deedee describes the "blatant hypocrisy of the feminist movement and feminist organizations when it comes to acknowledging Hamas' brutality and mass rape of Israeli women on October 7th." The silence of feminist and human rights organizations emphasizes the need for more education and the promotion of tolerance.

She also details how Florida has led the way in the nation with its strong support for Israel and for education, showing its support through Executive Orders, Emergency Orders and other legislation.
