

Elise Engle Speaks at Keystone Florida's "Law and Public Policy Day"

Tampa
2.7.24

Elise Engle, an appellate attorney in the Tampa and Tallahassee offices of Shutts & Bowen LLP, presented for the second year as a panelist during Keystone Florida's "Law and Policy Day" event, held at the Governor's Club in Tallahassee.

Elise, a member of Florida Blue Key, participated in a panel discussion titled "Strategy & Opportunity: Your Early Career," presenting with co-panelist Keenen Vernon. This year, the students toured the Florida Supreme Court and the Capitol building. The panels took place at the Governor's Club.

Keystone Florida is a project of Florida Blue Key, the University of Florida's oldest and most prestigious leadership honorary. Through mentorship and education, the Keystone Florida program prepares student leaders to enter the world of politics, industry, and the law informed and ready to contribute.

About Elise M. Engle

Elise M. Engle is an attorney in the Tampa and Tallahassee offices of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Appellate Practice Group. Elise focuses her practice on appellate litigation, civil appeals and trial support in both state and federal courts.

Professionals

Elise M. Engle

Practice Areas

Appellate

Offices

Tampa