

Eric Page Elected to Gasparilla Festival of the Arts Board of Directors

Tampa
6.9.21

Eric Page, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office, was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, one of the country's most prestigious fine arts and fine crafts shows.

Eric, who is active in the Hillsborough County Bar Association and in the community at large, will join the completely volunteer-run board of directors and festival committee to organize the annual event. As part of his three-year term, he will work year-round with his fellow Board members to support the organization, attend monthly meetings and participate in a board level committee.

For half a century, artists and art lovers have migrated each year to downtown Tampa's Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts, to see featured artwork in ceramic, digital, drawing, fiber, glass, jewelry, mixed media, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, watercolor and wood. The esteemed event also features local young artists' works, a weekend full of live entertainment, a children's art activity area, and more. The Raymond James Gasparilla Festival of the Arts awards up to $80,000 in prize money each year.
