Orlando
2.1.22

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Orlando partner Eric Reed has been appointed Chair of the Board of Directors of the Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Central Florida (RMHCCF).

As a leader of the board, Eric will help guide RMHCCF's strategies and long-term plans to find, create and support programs that directly improve the health and well-being of children and families throughout his two-year term. Eric has been an active board member of RMHCCF since 2017. He is also an active member of the legal community and currently serves as the President of the Orange County Bar Association. Eric has also served on the RMHCCF's Development/Cornerstone Committee and hosts annual fundraising golf tournaments in support of the charity.

Ronald McDonald House Charities® of Central Florida finds, creates and supports programs that directly improve the health and well-being of children and families. Their cornerstone program, the Ronald McDonald House, provides a home away from home for families with children receiving treatment at hospitals and medical facilities in Orlando, keeping families together when they need it the most. The organization's Central Florida chapter operates three separate Ronald McDonald Houses in the Orlando area to support 2,700 families of critically ill children a year.
