

Financial Services Partners Author Florida Consumer Financial Regulation Guidelines

3.18.21

Miami Financial Services partners Bowman Brown, Bryan Wells and John Bustard provided Practical Law Finance with a Q&A guide to consumer finance regulation in Florida. The document -- available to Practical Law users -- addresses state-specific laws governing the offering and sale of consumer financial products and services, including credit cards, residential mortgages, and consumer loans, covering such topics as licensing, fair lending, and unfair and deceptive trade practices. Practical Law is a legal publishing company which provides legal know-how for business lawyers.

The guide offers a glimpse into Florida's laws and regulations and can be compared across a number of jurisdictions in Practical Law's Consumer Finance Regulation: State Q&A Tool.

As one of the largest and most experienced group of financial service attorneys in the United States, Shutts & Bowen's Financial Services Practice Group represents a diverse group of clients across the nation and in markets around the world. The firm has one of the leading financial institutions practice groups in the country, representing U.S. and non-U.S. banks, broker-dealers, investment advisors, funds, private equity companies, FinTechs, and industry trade groups. The group has been awarded the Band 1 designation by Chambers & Partners since the first publication of this reference work.
