

Fort Lauderdale Team Presents During Law Symposium Hosted by NSU

4.4.24

Fort Lauderdale attorneys Sidney C. Calloway, B.C.S., Civil Trial Law and Janeil A. Morgan, members of the firm's Government Law Practice Group, delivered a presentation on "Strategic Selection: Voir Dire Tactics for Trial Triumph" during a two-day trial advocacy symposium titled the "Empowered Advocacy: Advancing Litigation Excellence" seminar. The symposium was hosted by the T.J. Reddick Bar Association, Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association, and Virgil Hawkins Florida Chapter National Bar Association at the NSU Shepard Broad College of Law on March 1-2, 2024. The symposium was tailored for both civil and criminal litigators seeking to enhance their skills and knowledge in preparation for Florida Bar board certification in civil and criminal law.

Sidney and Janeil's presentation provided an in-depth exploration of voir dire techniques in a civil jury trial setting which was designed to equip civil trial lawyers with the tools needed to confidently navigate jury selection and achieve triumph in the courtroom.

In addition to featuring a program with a host of board-certified attorneys, expert speakers, and judiciary members, the symposium had engaging panel discussions and interactive workshops, emphasizing the promotion of board certification among minority attorneys. Sidney has been Florida Bar Board Certified in Civil Trial Law since 2017.
