

Gregg Strock Participates as Guest Interviewer for Mock Interview Event

11.20.23

Miami attorney Gregg Strock, a member of the Real Estate practice group, participated as a Guest Interviewer during FIU Law's Mock Interview event, held on campus on November 8.

Practicing attorneys were selected to hold one-on-one interviews with students interested in their field of work. Individual interviews were followed up by group sessions, where students and interviewers discussed areas of improvement and important information to share during discussions. The goal of the event was for the students to make connections with industry professionals and learn more about the fields they are interested in.

About Gregg I. Strock

Gregg I. Strock is an associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. Gregg concentrates his practice in real estate development and finance. He represents national and regional homebuilders with the development of their condominiums and planned development communities, and for-profit and not-for-profit developers in affordable housing matters throughout the State of Florida. He also represents landlords and tenants in leasing transactions.

Professionals

Gregg I. Strock

Practice Areas

Real Estate

Offices

Miami