

Gregg Strock Reelected as At Large Member for the Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section of the Florida Bar

8.7.24

Miami attorney Gregg Strock was recently reelected as an At Large Member and Executive Council Member for the Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section of the Florida Bar. Additionally, Gregg was appointed as a Co-Vice Chair of the Development and Land Use Committee and the Publications Committee of the Section.

The At Large Members represent the Section throughout the State, participate on the Section's committees, keep current on issues of concern to the members, and communicate regularly with the members of the Section within their judicial circuit.

About Gregg I. Strock

Gregg I. Strock is an associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. Gregg concentrates his practice in real estate development and finance. He represents developers in affordable housing matters throughout the State of Florida, and national and regional homebuilders with the development of their condominiums and planned development communities. He also represents landlords and tenants in leasing transactions.

Professionals

Gregg I. Strock

Practice Areas

Real Estate

Offices

Miami