

Harold Morlan Presents CFPA CP Review Course

Orlando

8.29.22

On August 16, Orlando partner Harold Morlan "Hal" III presented a Certified Paralegal Review Course, discussing Real Estate & Property law for the Central Florida Paralegal Association.

Appearing as one of several speakers for the CFPA's educational programming, Hal assisted course attendees as they prepared for their Certified Paralegal (CP) exam, reviewing real estate property rights, ownership and more. As part of their programming, the CFPA is co-sponsoring a series of lectures to assist paralegals who are studying for the national NALA Certified Paralegal Exam. The organization is presenting 9 different lecture topics throughout the month. For more information, click here.

The Central Florida Paralegal Association, Inc. (CFPA) is an organization for paralegals/legal assistants who desire to promote high standards of professionalism in their field. Founded in 1983, the CFPA serves the local paralegal population through opportunities in continued legal education, professional development and community service. CFPA is a NALA Affiliated Association. Sara Ferguson, a Certified and Florida Registered Paralegal in Shutts & Bowen's Orlando office, currently serves on CFPA's Board of Directors.

About Harold "Hal" Morlan III

Harold "Hal" Morlan III is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Governmental Law Practice Group and the Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Task Force. Hal focuses his practice on the areas of eminent domain, business litigation, property rights, and construction litigation and complex litigation involving real estate and commercial issues. He also serves on the board of the Christian Service Center, a nonprofit in Central Florida that helps families in need.

Professionals

Harold E. Morlan III

Practice Areas

Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation

Harold Morlan Presents CFPA CP Review Course

Government Law

Real Estate

Offices

Orlando