

Harvey Oyer Recognized Among Florida's Most Influential Business Leaders

Florida Trend
11.7.22

West Palm Beach partner Harvey E. Oyer III, a member of the Shutts & Bowen's real estate practice group, has once again been listed among Florida Trend's Florida 500, a special publication that highlights the 500 most influential executives in the State of Florida. Harvey has been selected every year that Florida Trend has published the Florida 500.

Those included on the list, according to Florida Trend, "appear to be the kind of people who others in their communities or industry sectors look to for leadership." The editorial staff of Florida Trend recognizes Florida's most influential business leaders spanning across more than 60 business categories. The editorial selection of the 500 executives was based on extensive contacts in regional business circles, hundreds of interviews and months of research, culminating in a highly selective biographical guide to the people "who really run Florida."
