

Harvey Oyer to Moderate Panel on Migration of Companies to Palm Beach County

5.18.21

On Thursday, June 10, West Palm Beach partner Harvey E. Oyer III will serve as the moderator of a panel of speakers organized by the Business Development Board of Palm Beach County.

During "Ready or Not, Here They Come," panelists will discuss the in-migration of companies to Palm Beach County from New York, Boston, Connecticut and California; the urban infrastructure needed to keep the momentum going and to capture additional jobs and capital investment; and challenges faced in the current market.

The event is geared toward municipal and county elected officials; private business leaders; educational leaders; realtors/brokers and developers; financial service firms; professional service firms; transportation authorities; and housing developers and councils.

Harvey is the Chair-Elect of the Business Development Board.

The reception will take place from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Lake Pavilion at 101 South Flagler Drive in West Palm Beach.

About Harvey E. Oyer III

Harvey E. Oyer III is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. As a fifth generation native of Palm Beach County, Harvey brings a unique perspective to his understanding of the issues facing the region, its real estate market and development. He is one of the region's leading land use & zoning lawyers, having led the approval of many of the county's largest and most iconic projects. Harvey represents commercial and residential developers, cultural institutions, large farming interests and rural land owners, and governmental agencies in real estate transactions, finance, land use, zoning, agricultural law, and government affairs.

Professionals

Harvey E. Oyer III

Practice Areas

Land Use & Zoning

Real Estate

Harvey Oyer to Moderate Panel on Migration of Companies to Palm Beach County

---

Offices

West Palm Beach