

Harvey Oyer to Moderate Upcoming BDB “Wall Street South” Panel

12.6.22

On Wednesday, January 11, West Palm Beach partner and Business Development Board of Palm Beach County Chair Harvey E. Oyer III will moderate the BDB's “Wall Street South” panel, a BDB Upper-Level Breakfast.

During the last five years, more than 100 financial services firms have relocated or expanded their operations to Palm Beach County. Join panelists Stephen P. Master, Managing Director of GTCR; Jon Mohrhardt, President and Chief Operating Office of RiverNorth Capital Management; and Rudy Adolf, Chief Executive Officer of Focus Financial Partners as they discuss more about the “Wall Street South” initiative and to hear their insights on making the move.

Registration is open to all upper-level BDB members. For more information, please click here.

About Harvey E. Oyer III

Harvey E. Oyer III is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. As a fifth generation native of Palm Beach County, Harvey brings a unique perspective to his understanding of the issues facing the region, its real estate market and development. He is one of the region's leading land use & zoning lawyers, having led the approval of many of the county's largest and most iconic projects. Harvey represents commercial and residential developers, cultural institutions, large farming interests and rural land owners, and governmental agencies in real estate transactions, finance, land use, zoning, agricultural law, and government affairs.

Professionals

Harvey E. Oyer III

Practice Areas

Real Estate

Offices

West Palm Beach