

Harvey Oyer to be Recognized for Leadership and Service by the Forum Club

11.17.21

Harvey E. Oyer III, a Real Estate partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, will be recognized at an event held by the Forum Club of the Palm Beaches on December 6.

Harvey, a Past President of the Forum Club, will be honored for his leadership and service to the organization. He guided the organization through its 45th season despite a challenging COVID environment. Harvey brought innovative solutions that allowed the Forum Club to broadcast programming from notable locations across South Florida.

The December 6 event will feature Bret Baier, Chief Political Anchor for Fox News Channel. To purchase tickets, please visit <https://forumclubpalmbeach.org>.

About Harvey E. Oyer III

Harvey E. Oyer III is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. As a fifth generation native of Palm Beach County, Harvey brings a unique perspective to his understanding of the issues facing the region, its real estate market and development. He is one of the region's leading land use & zoning lawyers, having led the approval of many of the county's largest and most iconic projects. Harvey represents commercial and residential developers, cultural institutions, large farming interests and rural land owners, and governmental agencies in real estate transactions, finance, land use, zoning, agricultural law, and government affairs.

Related News

- Harvey Oyer to Chair 45th Season of the Forum Club of the Palm Beaches

Professionals

Harvey E. Oyer III

Practice Areas

Land Use & Zoning

Real Estate

Harvey Oyer to be Recognized for Leadership and Service by the Forum Club

Offices

West Palm Beach