

Janeil Morgan Selected for The Florida Bar Association's William Reece Smith, Jr. Leadership Academy

Fort Lauderdale
5.18.26

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Fort Lauderdale attorney Janeil Morgan has been selected as a Fellow of The Florida Bar's Wm. Reece Smith, Jr. Leadership Academy, Class XIV.

The Leadership Academy is a highly competitive, multi-session program designed to identify and cultivate emerging leaders within Florida's legal community. Each year, a select group of attorneys from across the state is chosen to participate based on their demonstrated leadership potential and commitment to the profession.

Administered by The Florida Bar, the Leadership Academy provides participants with a comprehensive curriculum focused on enhancing leadership skills, professional development, and engagement with the legal system. Fellows take part in a year-long program that includes educational sessions, collaboration opportunities, and involvement in initiatives that support the legal profession and broader community. The Wm. Reece Smith, Jr. Leadership Academy has trained hundreds of attorneys who have gone on to serve in leadership roles within The Florida Bar and their communities, further strengthening the profession statewide.

Janeil's selection to Class XIV reflects her dedication to excellence in the practice of law and her commitment to serving both clients and the community. Through the program, she will join a distinguished network of attorneys who are shaping the future of the legal profession in Florida.
