Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Jennifer J. Perez has joined the firm's Miami office as a partner in the Corporate Practice Group.

Perez has more than 20 years of experience focusing her practice on commercial disputes, corporate transactions and agreements, statutory and regulatory compliance and labor, employment and insurance matters in the healthcare, corporate and financial services sectors.

"Jennifer's extensive legal experience and leadership in the healthcare and corporate sectors make her an invaluable addition to our Corporate Practice Group," said Francis E. "Frank" Rodriguez, Chair of Shutts & Bowen's Executive Committee. "We are delighted to welcome her to the firm and look forward to the innovative solutions she will bring to our clients."

Prior to joining the firm, Perez served as Vice President and General Counsel of a leading healthcare management services organization (MSO), providing transactional, litigation and mediation support to more than 700 physicians and other providers, executives and office managers on group practice, corporate governance, healthcare, employment, real estate and corporate legal issues.

"Jennifer's background in managing complex corporate and regulatory matters aligns seamlessly with the needs of our clients," said William G. McCullough, Co-Chair of the firm's Corporate Practice Group. "Her expertise will further strengthen our team's ability to deliver exceptional counsel across a range of industries."

She received her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from Vanderbilt University and her law degree from Emory University School of Law.

She is a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, a Foundation Fellow of Funding Florida Legal Aid (formerly the Florida Bar Foundation) and a Board Member for Vital Cares Foundation, Inc.

"I am thrilled to join Shutts & Bowen and contribute to the firm's exceptional Corporate Practice Group," said Perez. "I look forward to collaborating with my new colleagues to deliver outstanding results for our clients and help them navigate today's dynamic business and legal landscape."
