

Jennifer Tobin Named to the Board of Directors of the Edible Education Experience

Orlando

10.2.23

Jennifer Slone Tobin, a partner in Shutts & Bowen's Orlando office and member of the firm's Executive Committee, was recently named to the Board of Directors of Edible Education Experience.

Edible Education Experience (EEE), which operates the 3,500 sq. ft. Emeril Lagasse Foundation Kitchen House and Culinary Garden in College Park, is a unique Orlando-based non-profit organization that features a hands-on teaching kitchen and on-site culinary garden, collaborates with local healthcare systems, develops relationships with locally and nationally recognized chefs, and provides innovative seed-to-table programming for youth (ages 7+) and adults.

As a member of the board of directors, Jennifer will play an active role in serving Central Florida area students and the community. She will work with her fellow board members to advance the EEE's mission to build strong community connections from the garden to the kitchen to the table.

About Jennifer Slone Tobin

Jennifer Slone Tobin serves on the firm's Executive Committee and is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. She is Florida Bar Board Certified in Real Estate Law. Jennifer has a diverse real estate practice. She represents developers in the traditional areas of acquisition, development, permitting and financing of vacant, rehabilitation and operating properties. Her developer representation has included most of the traditional financing providers, including traditional bank loans, CMBS-style loans, insurance company loans, and full-recourse and non-recourse debt. She also assists developers with the negotiation of joint venture agreements with equity investors, including state retirement funds, venture capital companies and large investment firms. Her developer side practice also includes advice on construction contracts and other similar agreements with consultants for new development and rehabilitation projects. She also represents lenders, primarily loans secured by real property, but also with traditional business lending. Having practiced in the lending arena from the beginning of her transactional practice, she has also been involved in loan workouts, including multiple complex loan portfolio workouts.
