

John Dannecker Speaks on Construction Panel at Stetson University College of Law

Tampa
12.3.24

John Dannecker, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office, recently participated as a panelist offering insights and expertise on construction law to the students of Stetson University College of Law on November 20, 2024.

The speaking engagement, which included a panel of prominent and nationally recognized construction law attorneys, was hosted by the Stetson Business Law Society in anticipation of the American Bar Association Forum on Construction Law's Midwinter Meeting in Tampa on January 15-17, 2025. John and his fellow panelists visited Stetson to explain the benefits of active membership in construction industry bar associations.

About John Dannecker

John H. Dannecker is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the firm's Construction Law Practice Group. John is Florida Bar Board Certified in Construction Law. In his 36 years in the practice of complex, large dollar construction disputes, John has developed a reputation for bringing an innovative and result-oriented mindset to the dispute resolution process. In addition to his construction practice, John has litigated numerous commercial business disputes, including troubled mergers and acquisitions, accounting malpractice, disadvantaged business enterprises, non-compete agreements, and theft of trade secrets. Using his trial experience and negotiating skills, he helps clients avoid disputes providing creative contract drafting ideas that reward early resolution of disputes.

Professionals

John H. Dannecker

Practice Areas

Construction

Industries

Construction

John Dannecker Speaks on Construction Panel at Stetson University College of Law

Offices

Orlando