Fort Lauderdale partner Joseph Goldstein was recently quoted in an article titled "All the Services for a Growing Community," published by Florida Trend.

According to the article, Fort Lauderdale has exponentially grown with domestic and international businesses in need of accounting and legal services.

"Firms bring multi-lingual, multi-cultural advisors assisting companies and entrepreneurs entering the market and in need of navigating complex issues emanating from conflicting federal and state regulatory and statutory law and acculturating them to the unique South Florida Market. This blend is top-tier legal talent and economic expansion helps position Broward as a central hub for South Florida's legal and business growth," states Joe.
