

Keegan Stinnett Speaks at Melbourne Central Catholic High School's "Career Day"

Orlando
2.11.26

Shutts & Bowen LLP Orlando attorney Keegan Stinnett recently participated in Melbourne Central Catholic High School's "Career Day" event on January 30, 2026.

Keegan, a member of Melbourne Central Catholic High School's Class of 2016, spoke to three sessions of high school students about the skills required to be an attorney and the path to becoming one. He discussed expectations for associates at an Am Law 200 firm, explained what real estate attorneys do and walked students through how a real estate deal is executed.

Students had the opportunity to engage with Keegan and ask questions about his typical work day, his experience working at Shutts and his undergraduate and law school education. The event was hosted as a part of "Catholic Schools Week" and was attended by other attorneys, judges, and professionals from finance, real estate and construction.
