

Kimberly Prior to Present during Intellectual Property CLE Discussing NFTs

12.6.21

On Wednesday, December 8, Miami financial services partner Kimberly Prior will participate in a CLE titled "Emerging Trends in Intellectual Property: What IP Practitioners Need to Know about Non-Fungible Tokens (NFTs)." The virtual event is being presented by the New York State Bar Association Intellectual Property Law Section.

The last couple of years have brought disruptions of all kinds, and one digital disrupter of the moment are NFTs. Presenters will discuss what NFTs are and how they are changing traditional markets while continuing to innovate in the digital world. The program will provide an in-depth overview of NFTs to assist IP practitioners navigate and shape the changing landscape.

The discussion will provide an overview of fast growing and emerging NFT technologies, related key legal updates pertinent to core IP practices, and practical advice for advising clients on these new technologies.

To learn more about the program or to register, please click here.

About Kimberly A. Prior

Kimberly A. Prior is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP where she is a member of the Financial Services Practice Group. Kimberly handles regulatory, transactional, enforcement and corporate matters for domestic and international financial services firms and businesses, including banks, broker-dealers, investment advisers and private equity funds. Kimberly also advises financial institutions and technology companies on regulatory, licensing, corporate and compliance issues in the FinTech space. Kim is the co-author of "Digital Assets and Blockchain Technology: US Law and Regulation," a textbook that examines the legal and regulatory approaches regarding the most important issues impacting the blockchain space. She is also the co-author of a chapter on recent developments in cross-border securities law.

Practice Areas

Financial Services

Intellectual Property

Industries

Financial Services

Kimberly Prior to Present during Intellectual Property CLE Discussing NFTs

Offices

Miami