

Lauren Stricker Appointed to Another Term on Florida Bar's Judicial Nominating Procedures Committee

Tampa
6.11.20

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Lauren L. Stricker, a partner in the firm's Tampa office, has been appointed to continue serving on The Florida Bar's Judicial Nominating Procedures Committee, with a term beginning on July 1, 2020.

Actively involved as a member of the committee for the past year, Lauren was reappointed to her position by The Florida Bar President. A fellow of the Business Law Section of The Florida Bar, Lauren will utilize her extensive legal capabilities and prior civic experience to serve the standing committee and assist the Governor on the subject of the judicial nominating process.

The scope and function of the Judicial Nominating Procedures Committee is to assist the Governor and the Judicial Nominating Commissions in discharging their respective duties under Article V, Section 11, Constitution of Florida. The committee establishes the rules and procedures for the state's 26 nominating commissions, which focus on judicial merit selection.
