

Leila Oberschall Moderates Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce's Emerging Leaders Empower Series Program with Tampa Bay Buccaneers Leadership

Tampa
5.6.26

Leila Oberschall, an attorney in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Tampa office and a member of the firm's Business Litigation practice group, led an engaging fireside chat as part of the Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce Emerging Leaders program's Empower Series, held at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers AdventHealth Training Center on April 16, 2026. The discussion focused on executive leadership, organizational strategy, and navigating growth at the highest levels of a premier sports organization.

The event, moderated by Leila, featured a conversation with Tampa Bay Buccaneers leadership, Brian Ford, Chief Operating Officer, and Kourtney Sanchez, Chief Impact Officer. Both speakers shared insights from their professional journeys, offering valuable perspectives on leadership, collaboration, and innovation.
