

Mark Thomson Named Chair of the Orange County Development Advisory Board

Orlando
4.20.22

Mark Thomson, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office, was recently elected Chair of the Development Advisory Board for the Orange County Board of County Commissioners.

Mark, who has served on the Development Advisory Board since 2016, will lead the efforts of the nine-member Board as they provide recommendations to the County with regard to certain development initiatives and approvals, as well as the land development code and County Comprehensive Land Use Plans. Following a two-year term as Vice Chair, Mark was elected Chairman of the Board for the 2022-2023 term during the Board's most recent meeting, held on April 18, 2022.

"I am honored to have been elected amongst my fellow Board members for this position and look forward to continuing to serve the Orange County Government in this leadership role," said Mark.

The primary responsibility of the Development Advisory Board, which meets monthly, is to review proposed Orange County land development regulations affecting development and redevelopment in Orange County and recommend needed changes or revisions to the Board of County Commissioners. The Board of County Commissioners appoints Orange County Advisory Board members.
