

Michael Silver Named to The Poynter Institute Foundation Board

Tampa
2.10.21

Shutts & Bowen LLP is pleased to announce that Michael Silver, a partner in the firm's Tampa office, has been named to The Poynter Institute Foundation Board.

The Poynter Institute for Media Studies, founded in 1975, is a global leader in journalism. It is the world's leading instructor, innovator, convener, and resource for anyone who aspires to engage and inform citizens. Poynter champions freedom of expression, civil dialogue, and compelling journalism that helps citizens participate in healthy democracies. It prepares journalists worldwide to hold powerful people accountable and promote honest information in the marketplace of ideas.

The Foundation supports Poynter through formal fundraising efforts. The goal of the Foundation Board, which is comprised of community and media leaders, is to expand Poynter's reach and influence in improving journalism as an essential tool of our democracy. With his fellow Board members, Michael will work to increase philanthropic support for Poynter. He will donate his time and resources to support the Foundation in its mission to advance philanthropic donations through campaigns, special events, and other advancement programs.

Poynter offers training and events throughout the year in the areas of online and multimedia, leadership and management, reporting, writing, and editing, television and radio, ethics and diversity, journalism education, and visual journalism. Poynter houses both the Pulitzer Prize-winning PolitiFact, the largest political fact-checking news organization in the United States, as well as the International Fact-Checking Network, a Nobel Peace Prize nominee.
