

Patricia A. Leonard Elected to the Executive Committee of the Armory Art Center's Board of Directors

5.30.24

Patricia A. Leonard, a business litigation partner in Shutts & Bowen's West Palm Beach office, has been elected to the executive committee of the Armory Art Center's Board of Directors.

The Armory Art Center provides art classes for artists of all ages and abilities, and is a premier space for exhibitions, art salons, lectures, and special events. The Armory offers nearly 100 courses held in 12 state-of-the-art studios. The Armory also provides healing arts programs such as BraveHeARTS, which promotes the rehabilitation of military service veterans through the visual arts, and the Art of the Phoenix, which serves teens and young adults who have experienced past trauma by encouraging creative expression paired with art therapy. The Board of Directors is an all-volunteer board that supports and advances the mission of the art center; Patti has served on the Board since 2021.

About Patricia A. Leonard

Patricia A. Leonard is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group and Chair of the firm's Focus on Women Committee. Patti has a diverse business and commercial litigation practice, representing businesses in their contractual and other disputes, employment discrimination defense, partnership and corporate disputes, pharmaceutical and nutraceutical litigation matters, securities litigation, and real estate litigation.

Professionals

Patricia A. Leonard

Practice Areas

Litigation

Offices

West Palm Beach