

Patricia Leonard Appointed Co-Chair of the Palm Beach County Bar Association's Professionalism Committee

West Palm Beach
6.19.23

Patricia A. Leonard, a partner and trial attorney in Shutts & Bowen's West Palm Beach office, has been appointed to co-chair the Palm Beach County Bar Association's Professionalism Committee.

The Professionalism Committee of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, which is made up of lawyers and judges and paralegals, seeks to actively promote the Oath of Civility contained in the oath of admission to the Florida Bar addresses ways to instill a sense of professionalism in Bar members; responds to negative publicity concerning the legal profession; reviews complaints referred to the Professionalism Panel and conducts CLE programs on ethics and professionalism throughout the year. For more information, click here.

About Patricia A. Leonard

Patricia A. Leonard is a partner in the West Palm Beach office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group and Chair of the firm's Focus on Women Group. Patti has a diverse business and commercial litigation practice, representing businesses in their contractual and other disputes, employment matters, partnership and corporate disputes, pharmaceutical and nutraceutical litigation matters, securities litigation and real estate litigation.

Professionals

Patricia A. Leonard

Practice Areas

Litigation

Offices

West Palm Beach