

Paul Scheck Named Chair-Elect of Samaritan Resource Center

Orlando

4.18.22

Paul Scheck, a partner in Shutts & Bowen LLP's Orlando office, has been appointed Chair-Elect of the Samaritan Resource Center, a non-profit organization working to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty in East Orange County.

Paul, who joined the Board of Directors at the Samaritan Resource Center in 2019, will work in collaboration with his fellow board members to continue to reach and assist more at-risk individuals experiencing homelessness in 2022. In addition to his work with the Samaritan Resource Center, Paul is also a member of the board for Grace Medical Home and serves two leadership roles for the Executive Council of The Florida Bar's Trial Lawyers Section.

The Samaritan Resource Center (SRC) works to reduce the homeless population and stabilize at-risk individuals in East Orange County. Since operations began at their Colonial Drive center in 2013, the Samaritan Resource Center has helped thousands of homeless individuals by assisting with food stamps, SSI/SSD, and Assurance phones applications, as well as offering haircuts, clothing, prayer and more.

About Paul J. Scheck

Paul Scheck is a partner in the Orlando office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where he is a member of the Labor and Employment Practice Group. A Martindale Hubbell AV® rated attorney, Paul has been named one of the Best Lawyers in America® in Labor and Employment Law. He has worked with employers and human resources professionals for nearly 26 years, and has assisted them through many labor and employment challenges, from corporate policies to wage and hour matters, non-compete claims to discrimination and harassment cases, ADA Title II accessibility claims to unfair labor practice charges.

Professionals

Paul J. Scheck

Practice Areas

Labor and Employment

Paul Scheck Named Chair-Elect of Samaritan Resource Center

Offices

Orlando