

Peggy Rolando Presents on the Aftermath of the Surfside Condominium Collapse During PLI's CREI

11.14.22

Miami partner Margaret "Peggy" Rolando, a real estate attorney who is Florida Bar Board Certified in Real Estate Law and in Condominium and Planned Development Law, presented during the 24th Annual Commercial Real Estate Institute (CREI) presented by the Practising Law Institute. The CREI is the definitive course for practitioners handling sophisticated real estate matters and includes faculty from among the best in the commercial real estate industry across the country to provide up-to-date instruction in such key areas as financing, leasing, strategic deal structuring, and construction.

Peggy participated as a speaker and panelist on "Aftermath of the Surfside Condominium Collapse: Effect on Condominium Ownership, Operations, Insurance, Reserves, Financing and Management" alongside fellow panelists William P. Sklar and Roger D. Winston. Topics discussed included:

- More accurately suggesting funding amounts for deferred maintenance and repairs/ replacements, reserves, and association borrowing
- Advising on new insurance coverage limitations, increased costs, and availability due to Surfside
- Understanding the effects of Fannie/Freddie and lender requirements on financing condo projects and units after Surfside
- Identifying obsolete condos and coops for termination or redevelopment
- Assessing potential liability and necessary disclosures after Surfside
- Preparing clients for the future of condo ownership, including professionalization of condo management and affordability of condo ownership
