

Peggy Rolando and Jennifer Tobin Present on Real Estate Issues at Florida Bar Certification Seminar

4.10.23

On April 4, Miami Partner “Peggy” Rolando and Orlando Partner Jennifer Slone Tobin served as speakers at the Florida Bar’s Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Section’s (RPPTL) Advanced Real Property Certification Review Seminar.

The seminar was an advanced level course for real estate practitioners, both for those seeking certification in real estate law as well as those seeking to learn from distinguished speakers on a wide variety of real estate topics. Jennifer discussed the intricacies of tenancies and conveyances while Peggy focused on complex real estate finance and lending issues.

RPPTL serves the citizens of the State of Florida, the legal community, and its Section members with the highest levels of knowledge, experience and commitment to real property, probate and trust law. The organization assists in developing real property, probate and trust laws; developing standards for ethical and competent practice in those areas of law; developing and maintaining professional relationships between the section’s attorneys and other professional groups; and assists with accomplishing legislative objectives and improvements in the administration of requisite laws.
