

Shiza Francis Moderates Federalist Society's Courthouse Steps Decision Program Webinar

7.10.25

On July 2, Shutts & Bowen LLP Miami attorney Shiza Francis moderated the Federalist Society's Courthouse Steps Decision: Fuld v. Palestine Liberation Organization webinar.

In Fuld v. Palestine Liberation Organization, the Court considered whether the Promoting Security and Justice for Victims of Terrorism Act (PSJVTa) violates the due process clause of the Fifth Amendment. In a 9-0 decision, the Supreme Court recently ruled that the PSJVTa is constitutional because the statute "reasonably ties the assertion of jurisdiction over the Palestine Liberation Organization and Palestinian Authority to conduct impacting victims of terror and implicating sensitive foreign policy matters within the prerogative of the political branches."

This program discussed this decision as well as the potential implications on foreign defendants in federal courts.

To learn more and view the webinar, click here.

About Shiza Francis

Shiza Francis is an Associate in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Government Law Practice Group. Shiza focuses her practice on matters related to administrative, commercial, constitutional and governmental law.

Professionals

Shiza Francis

Practice Areas

Constitutional Law

Government Law

Litigation

Political Law

Industries

Government

Shiza Francis Moderates Federalist Society's Courthouse Steps Decision Program Webinar

Offices

Miami