

Shutts Appellate Lawyers Attend Practicing Before the Florida Supreme Court Seminar

Tallahassee
6.20.24

The Shutts & Bowen Appellate Practice Group attended and presented at the recent Practicing Before the Florida Supreme Court Seminar on Wednesday, June 5, 2024.

The seminar began with an observation of an oral argument, followed by a discussion of the arguing attorneys involved in the case. Sessions included panels and presentation on oral arguments, briefs and discretionary review, a discussion with the justices, as well as a tour of the Florida Supreme Court Building.

Shutts was well-represented at the Seminar by Appellate Practice Group Chair Daniel Nordby, Constitutional Law Section Chair Ricky Polston, appellate attorneys Tara Price, Alyssa Cory, and Elise Engle, as well as summer associates Matt Henderson and Austin Dillon.

Ricky Polston moderated a panel discussion on oral argument, while Tara Price participated as a panelist in a discussion on merits briefing.

The event was sponsored by The Florida Bar Continuing Legal Education Committee, the Government Lawyers Section, and the Appellate Practice Section. For more information, click here.
