

Shutts & Bowen Hosts and Co-Organizes Event with Young MIAS

Miami
7.1.25

On June 26, Shutts & Bowen's Miami office hosted and co-organized "The Florida Advantage: Successfully Using Section 1782 Discovery in International Disputes" with Young MIAS.

International Litigation & Arbitration Group attorneys, Eduardo De la Peña Bernal and Fernando Oyarzun, served as a panelist and a moderator, respectively. Eduardo and Fernando were joined by speakers Jessica Marroquin, Shareholder, Lawson Huck Gonzalez PLLC, and Maria Lucia Echandia, Senior Associate, Hogan Lovells US LLP.

Young MIAS is Florida's premiere network for young practitioners and students interested in developing their careers in international arbitration and alternative dispute resolution. Young MIAS finds its roots and functions as a young professional organization under the auspices of the Miami International Arbitration Society (MIAS). To learn more, click here.
